

GERMAN RIGHT WING IN POLAND CUT OFF

ENORMOUS LOSSES IN BATTLE WITH RUSSIANS

A Complete Investment of Cracow By Czar's Troops Now Threatened

SURROUNDED GERMANS FIGHT HARD

Able to Hold the Positions They Had Fortified After the Defeat of Part of Their Forces at Lodz—Announced That the Left Wing of the Kaiser's Army in Poland is in Full Retreat Toward Thorn and German Forces in the Strykow and Lodz Region May be Compelled to Abandon Their Position—Berlin Reports a Russian Disaster.

(By International News Service)

Paris, Nov. 30.—A Petrograd dispatch to the Matin says the German right wing in Southern Poland has been entirely cut off. The German losses, particularly in prisoners was enormous.

Will Invest Cracow

The complete investment of Cracow is threatened.

"The Russians are progressing in the region of Strykow," says the dispatch. "The battle continues with desperate fighting against the three surrounded German army corps and reinforcements from Leczyca."

Petrograd, Nov. 30.—The Messenger announces that the left wing of the German army in Poland is fleeing toward Thorn. The continued advance of the Russians from Bzura in pursuit of the fleeing Germans will force the Kaiser's troops to abandon their positions in the Strykow, Hlegers and Lodz region.

The Austrian forces between Przemysl and Cracow are completely shattered and Cracow will soon be invested.

The Turkish troops are fleeing in disorder from Kaprikoi, which was captured by the Russians.

Many Russians Captured

Berlin, Nov. 30.—It is officially announced that 65,000 Russians, including two generals, were captured by the Austrians in the battle of Kutno. It was announced at military headquarters Sunday that Emperor William is now with the German army in the east.

Greatest of Modern Battles

London, Nov. 30.—Official announcements in Berlin that 65,000 Russians were captured in the battle at Kutno and that the Kaiser has gone to the eastern theatre of war, coupled with the official statement from Petrograd showing that the Germans are occupying positions from which they were driven back a week ago, is taken by military experts here to mean that the conflict in Poland is one of most terrific ever waged by modern armies.

Neither Berlin, Petrograd nor Vienna claims any decisive victory and it is possible that the Poland campaign may terminate as did that along the Aisne in a deadlock in which neither will be able to gain marked advantage.

BANKS WILL RECEIVE BELGIAN RELIEF FUNDS

The citizens of Clearfield are asking for a place of deposit for money which will undoubtedly be given in small amounts for the relief of the Belgian war sufferers. In response to this demand the banks of Clearfield have decided to accept and forward, free of charge, all such funds.

Giving now means Christmas food for Belgian women and children who otherwise may perish from hunger and cold.

Hundreds of thousands of these destitute people face starvation, and the fatal results of exposure to the harsh winter which already has set in.

"Do it now"—never meant more, Clearfield National Bank, Clearfield Trust Company, County National Bank of Clearfield.

MAIL YOUR CHRISTMAS GIFTS WITHOUT DELAY

Do your Christmas shopping early, is a yearly slogan that bobs up about this season. Postmaster Martin and his assistants are fully equipped to handle the rush that always attends the Christmas season. While the European war has caused a falling off in the mail bulk, the local office has made the requisition for a large allotment of stamps.

Postmaster Martin has also introduced an innovation on the annual season slogan. With him it is "do your Christmas mailing early." The Clearfield office is prepared to handle a rush of mail matter, but the situation can be wonderfully assisted by local people if they will but heed the request of the office. Mail your packages early. Stickers reading "Do Not Open Until Christmas" are available and if placed on a package, the same may be sent out days in advance of the regular Christmas celebration day.

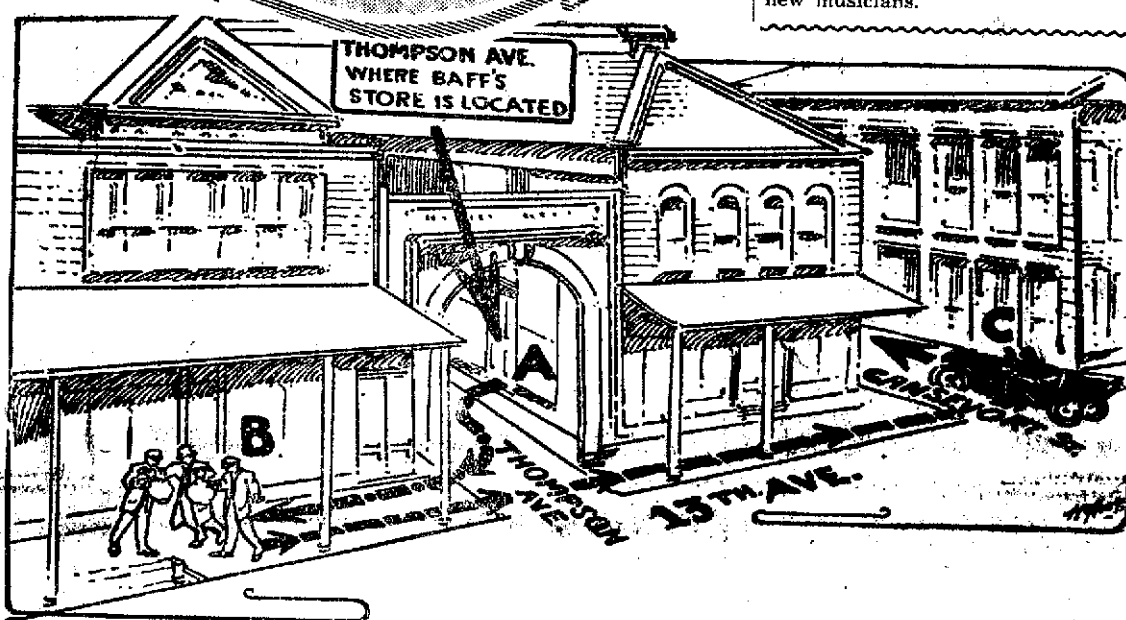

Packages weighing up to 50 pounds may be sent within a radius of 150 miles, and packages weighing less than 20 pounds may be sent anywhere. "Mail early, wrap securely address plainly."

New York, Nov. 30.—Detectives who have been assigned to run down the murderers of Barnett Baff, who is believed to have been slain as a result of his fearless opposition to the so-called "Poultry Trust," are said to have located the man who acted as go-between for the men who wished Baff killed and the "gunmen" who committed the murder.

While the alleged go-between has not yet been arrested the police are believed to be using their own methods to force a confession from this agent of Baff's enemies.

GERMANS ON DEFENSIVE IN BELGIUM CONFLICT

Paris Reports That Artillery Fire Has Decreased In Violence

WILL MAKE ANOTHER DESPERATE ASSAULT

Kaiser's Armies in Belgium Will Make Another Effort to Reach the Coast—Awaiting Reinforcements—French Reports Having Captured Several Positions North and South of Ypres—German Machine Guns Destroyed in the Region of the Aisne—Counter Attacks by the Trenches Reported.

(By International News Service)

Paris, Nov. 30.—It is officially reported that the Germans are now on the defensive in Belgium. Their artillery fire is weaker and the French made progress at some points. The Germans are keeping up their intermittent bombardment of the French troops in the forest of Apremont.

Germans Will Renew Efforts

London, Nov. 30.—The experts, while agreeing that the Germans were foiled in their attempts to reach the French coast through Flanders, expect a resumption of these efforts as soon as the Germans get to the front of all the troops moving through Belgium. This theory is upheld by a dispatch from Constantinople stating: "Private advices from Berlin states that shortly new and important events may be looked for in Belgium."

SIXTH ORGAN RECITAL WAS A MUSICAL TREAT

On Sunday evening James K. Horton gave the sixth of the series of organ recitals that he is giving in the Presbyterian church. Last evening he played, "Fantasia," by Ashford, "The Sandman," by Alden, "Barcarolle," by Offenbach, "The Song of Sorrow," by Nevin, and "The Hymn of Nina," by Lefebure-Wely.

KAISER WILLIAM A MOHAMMEDAN

This is The Belief of Turkish Soldiers, at Any Rate

MANY GERMANS CONVERTED

Even Some of the Missionaries are Among Those Who Have Espoused the Cause of the Prophet—Fanatical Turks Claim That the War Lord is One of Them, That's Why They are Fighting For Germany.

London, Nov. 30.—Kaiser William has turned Mohammedan and says his prayers with his face turned toward Mecca every morning and evening—this is implicitly believed by the Turkish soldiers now fighting for the Teutonic cause. They also know—for their leaders have told them so—that the Germans are joining the faith of the Prophet at the rate of 10,000 a day. The Crescent is to fly in every great capital at last!

These stories, absurdities to the Occident, are not hard for the Turks to stomach. They have always believed that Mohammedanism would cover the earth—with a much more implicit faith than ninety per cent. of Christians believe Christ's teachings will some day be everywhere triumphant. They themselves are fierce warrior-proselytes whom the Arabs converted, and who then outdid the countrymen of Mohammed in battling for the Crescent; so it is easy for them to be convinced the warlike Germans are going through the same process as did the Ottomans several centuries ago.

There is just a grain of truth in this Mohammedanization of Germany, too. Of the tens of thousands of German school teachers, engineers, soldiers and business men who have come to Turkey in the last ten years, large numbers have learned the Turkish language and learned it with Teutonic thoroughness. And a great many have espoused the faith of the Prophet. Even men

RUMOR

What ran from lip to lip to tell
How Jelico, though fighting well,
First of the British seamen fell?
A Rumor.

What was it that inspired the pen
Which told of our defeated men,
And losses more than nine in ten?
A Rumor.

Who saw the Russians passing through
From Berlin's Strait to Timbuctoo
By way of Cork and Waterloo?
Dance Rumor.

Who told us we had brought to book
The German right, and soon might look
Upon the face of beaten Kluck?
'Twas Rumor.

Who, wisely mixing good and ill,
And giving balsam after chill,
Contrives to keep us happy still?
Why, Rumor.

So, as she brings us smiles and tears,
And plays upon our hopes and fears,
To fill us with excitement, here's To Rumor.

BIG GUNS ON COAST A MATCH FOR ANY FOE

Expert ordinance officials of the war department declare that no navy in the world could cope with the 14-inch guns of the seacoast fortresses of the United States. These officials said that the German guns which destroyed the forts at Liege, being of a milder type, could not be used by any nation attacking the United States from the sea. The biggest naval gun of a foreign nation according to the officials, is only 13 1/2 inch calibre, and the 11 inch coast defense gun, firing from a solid platform and into a field thoroughly plotted, is more than a match for it.

The United States, however, will not remain at a standstill on the subject of coast defense guns, according to the experts. It will soon have all the forts equipped with the new 14-inch guns. There are about 30 of these, some of them having been sent already to the Philippine Islands, Hawaii and canal fortifications.

It was pointed out also that the efficiency of the 14-inch guns now in the forts can be quickly and materially increased by enlarging the powder chambers of the guns, an operation which is simple and speedily performed.

Secretary Kalbfus Urges Payment of Bounties

The secretary of the state game commission has issued the following letter to the commissioners of the counties of Pennsylvania:

To the County Commissioners:
Gentlemen—I am writing you today regarding a matter in which the game commission and all sportsmen are deeply interested, and refer to the payment of bounties under the provisions of law in this state. This law, among other things, provides that after certain regulations have been complied with, county commissioners shall pay the bounty and afterward, upon claim made, the county shall be reimbursed by the state from a fund especially collected for this purpose.

The courts have ruled that the several counties must pay these claims when properly presented, and that after this has been done, the state is required to appropriate moneys to make return of this money so expended.

This office is quite anxious to have all legitimate claims of this character paid. The sportsmen of the state are equally anxious to have this done, and I am sure those who are claiming bounties feel as we do regarding this matter. We desire to impress upon you the fact that unless the claims presented to you for bounty have been first paid by you, there will be no way through which you can, through appropriation, secure the money to the benefit of claimants for this bounty in your county. The money wherewith to meet your demands has been paid into the state treasury by sportsmen and is awaiting your demand in proper form for return to you, and we ask that you at once comply with the requirements of the law and the ruling of the superior court of this state regarding this matter.

It is hardly fair for county commissioners to refuse to pay bounties during the greater part of two years and then through a hurried payment at the end of that time get in form to present a claim for reimbursement from the state. Many legitimate claims in this way will be overlooked and the purpose for which this law was passed will not be secured; the idea of the sportsmen, who pay this fee, will not have been carried out, and action of this kind by county commissioners will surely be resented at the polls not only by hunters, but also by all lovers of birds; by farmers whose poultry is endangered through the presence of the fox or the weasel, etc., made possible because of such action, as well as by those who have lost this bounty.

Respectfully yours,

JOSEPH KALBFUS,

Secretary, Game Commission

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-induced or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now. Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane, which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dripping into the throat and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

TEMPERANCE THINGS

REV. ROBERT C. PETERS

The Working Man Should Know

1. That whiskey possesses no nutritive value whatever and therefore can afford no strength.

2. That all alcoholic drinks, on account of the alcohol-poison—they contain, may exert a brief temporary feeling of warmth and excitability but they soon induce sleepiness and lower the body temperature.

3. That alcoholic drinks on account of the same poison, weaken muscular power, steadiness of the hands, and the whole mental and physical working ability—make one slow and inattentive, and diminish the power of self-preservation.

4. That the regular use of alcohol increases the liability to all kinds of diseases and delays recovery.

5. That the habitual use of alcohol particularly favors liability to consumption.

6. That the regular use of alcoholic drink causes an early loss of working ability.

7. That "Blue Monday" is almost without exception to be attributed to (Siberia) indulgence in alcoholic drink.

8. That nearly half of the accidents occurring in working hours are caused by the use of alcohol.

9. That the regular use of alcohol drains from the work-man's pocket a large amount of money that is well-earned and would much better be spent for food and clothing and other useful things.

10. That the regular use of alcohol greatly endangers health and property.

Teachers Should Know:

1. That alcoholic drink, whether beer, wine, or distilled liquor, contains any one thing or strong element made with molasses.

2. That the alcohol contained in a drink is a poison to the body and the health of the user in proportion to the amount consumed.

3. That the use of alcohol causes chronic diseases of the body, particularly the skin, liver, kidneys and stomach.

4. That the use of alcohol makes the body liable to contract infectious diseases, the destructive tuberculosis, etc.

5. That alcohol in every form and amount is particularly injurious to children because of their growing bodies, and is to be absolutely withheld from them.

6. That because alcohol disturbs normal child's and markedly interferes with the ability to receive mental instruction—a child's ability to learn, and therefore.

7. Every use of alcohol by the child influences unfavorably the results of instruction; it renders the pupil disobedient and refractory.

8. That alcohol, by weakening the higher brain center involved in reflection and self-control, leaves the way open for the expression of the lower impulses.

9. It is self-evident that in the latter conditions the moral nature of the child is greatly endangered.

10. The teacher must therefore be well convinced that an energetic campaign against alcohol would open the way for a general advance in culture and health, and therefore, a practical cooperation of the whole teaching fraternity in the solution of the alcohol question is from every standpoint urgently desirable.

CINC STREET SUITS.

Fabrics Which Fashion Approves For Their Construction.

SUIT WITH DOUBLE TURN.

Broadcloth and serge are always in demand for street dresses, but this year there is even a greater vogue for pean de souris, velours de laine and duvetyn, the latter now being woven to give as much satisfaction as broadcloth itself.

Ripple cloth, which looks exactly as its name implies, but is actually a smooth weave material, is being used for many smart models, while woolen crepe and poplin and even old-fashioned cashmere are seen. This latter material is splendid for the new military cape.

The gown of black satin which is illustrated has a double turned skirt, with bodice of black fabric fur, built on lines which suggest the basque. The vest is of white chiffon.

GLASS OF SALTS
CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

Good Work of Boy Scouts.

The Boy Scouts of America of Boston, Co., were recently of great service to their community. After trying several plans to obtain proper sanitary means of having the garbage and rubbish taken up from the streets and after meeting each time with failure the citizens of the town called on the scouts for aid. The scouts, under Scoutmaster R. D. MacAlpine, put the problem before the Ladies' Twentieth Century club in the form of a petition, which was endorsed by their members, after which they carried the petition to the town authorities. The work of the scouts united the various forces in the town, and the relief was promptly granted.

WEALTHY MAN A SUSPECT IN GIRL'S SLAYING.

For Young Folks

A Country Baby Boy and His Pet Rooster.

Most people love animal pets, especially little people. Dogs and kittens are usually chosen, and rabbits, guinea pigs, squirrels, etc., are common, but a rooster is surely an exception. The baby in the picture is not much larger than his feathered pet, and both are about the same age. As the illustration shows, they are on excellent terms and apparently are enjoying a confidential talk. Kindness to animals is a fine trait and one that all boys and girls should cultivate. Kind treatment quickly wins the trust and affection of a pet.

who have gone as missionaries are among this number.

There may be a few hypocrites, but most of these converts are sincere. Their addition to the hordes of Mohammed have been made the basis for the most absurd statements in the speeches of fanatic priests. According to refugees arriving here from Turkish towns young sofos, or clergymen, are gathering about them fanatical multitudes and addressing them somewhat as follows:

"Sons of the noble conquerors of the ancient Eastern empire—descendants of Sultans Selim and Suleiman! I preach to you a message from the only living incarnate Vekil-ullah (God's representative), Sheikh-ulislam (supreme head of the Mohammedan church.)

"Bold and faithful followers! I bring you glad tidings; for four months our noble religion has augmented its children at the rate of 10,000 daily. Are they our ungrateful Armenians? No. They never will see the blessed light. Are they our sly Greeks, who now become Moslems? Again, I say No! Is it Russian, French, English or Italian? No. No, a thousand times no! Alamanlar, Alamanlar! (Germans, Germans). They are the great and noble nation that has seen the true light! They have drawn the sword—yea, that great nation that knows how to use the sword in the name of Allah!

"The newly converted great warrior of all Europe, the mighty chezar, Wilhelm the Second, has also become a holy Moslem convert!"

It is not hard to understand that after such speeches as these there is wild enthusiasm for the war among the unthinking and uninformed and wild hatred of the Christians. In many places there have been massacres of Christians—Oriental, not European Christians. In one place I learn from an authoritative source that a Roman Catholic priest, (member of a Roman Catholic order) was captured by a mob and stabbed to death when he steadfastly refused to repeat the Moslem creed.

Of the ten thousand Germans who speak Turkish, many are now in the ranks of the Mohammedan clergy. I learn from an authoritative source that a German named Muller, who

OBITUARY

Meise

Mrs. Meise, wife of Henry Meise, of Clearfield street, died of cancer in the Clearfield hospital Saturday evening at 7:15 o'clock. Mrs. Meise had been ill about a year and was taken to the hospital last week.

She is survived by her husband and eleven children, Herma, William, Lewis, Ord, Lottie and Mrs. John Rader, of Clearfield; Mrs. Annie Vander, of Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Otis Wilson, of Patton; Harry, of Pittsburgh; and Miss Nellie, of Titusville.

The deceased was aged 62 years, 10 months and 17 days. Mrs. Meise was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eton, and the early part of her life was spent in York county. In 1872 she married Henry Meise and went to live at LuRay, in W. Va., from where they came to Clearfield in 1888. She was a member of the Methodist church.

came to Turkey as a Lutheran missionary and was converted to Mohammedanism, led a fanatical Moslem mob to a Roman Catholic church and would have had the prelate lynched but for the timely interference of a Moslem clergyman.

Some time ago the German instructors of the army of Aleppo issued a general order commanding the Christian population of the province to surrender all the firearms. The Christian officers of this military committee (Turks) refused to comply with the order of the Prussian officers or instructors on the ground that they had sworn allegiance to uphold the Ottoman constitution and that this was unconstitutional. Five of these officers, Armenians, Greeks and Syrians, were found guilty of high treason and put to death forthwith. The next day an Arab Syrian regiment attacked the headquarters of the Aleppo army division staff and captured and executed nine Germans and six Turkish officers. Six days after this, nine regiments of Anatolian troops surrounded the barracks of the Arab regiment and a few hours later every Arab soldier was dead. The Anatolians believed they were destroying a rebellious Christian regiment and when they learned the truth there was a fray among the officers and five German instructors were killed.

GERMAN RIGHT WING IN POLAND CUT OFF

ENORMOUS LOSSES IN BATTLE WITH RUSSIANS

A Complete Investment of Cracow By Czar's Troops
Now Threatened

SURROUNDED GERMANS FIGHT HARD

Able to Hold the Positions They Had Fortified After the Defeat of Part of Their Forces at Lodz—Announced That the Left Wing of the Kaiser's Army in Poland is in Full Retreat Toward Thorn and German Forces in the Strykow and Lodz Region May be Compelled to Abandon Their Position—Berlin Reports a Russian Disaster.

(By International News Service)

Paris, Nov. 30.—A Petrograd dispatch to the Matin says the German right wing in Southern Poland has been entirely cut off. The German losses, particularly in prisoners was enormous.

Will Invest Cracow

The complete investment of Cracow is threatened.

"The Russians are progressing in the region of Strykow," says the dispatch. "The battle continues with desperate fighting against the three surrounded German army corps and reinforcements from Leczyca."

Petrograd, Nov. 30.—The Messenger announces that the left wing of the German army in Poland is fleeing toward Thorn. The continued advance of the Russians from Bzura in pursuit of the fleeing Germans will force the Kaiser's troops to abandon their positions in the Strykow, Hlegers and Lodz region.

The Austrian forces between Przemysl and Cracow are completely shattered and Cracow will soon be invested.

The Turkish troops are fleeing in disorder from Kaprikoi, which was captured by the Russians.

Many Russians Captured

Berlin, Nov. 30.—It is officially announced that 65,000 Russians, including two generals, were captured by the Austrians in the battle of Kutno. It was announced at military headquarters Sunday that Emperor William is now with the German army in the east.

Greatest of Modern Battles

London, Nov. 30.—Official announcements in Berlin that 65,000 Russians were captured in the battle at Kutno and that the Kaiser has gone to the eastern theatre of war, coupled with the official statement from Petrograd showing that the Germans are occupying positions from which they were driven back a week ago, is taken by military experts here to mean that the conflict in Poland is one of most terrific ever waged by modern armies.

Neither Berlin, Petrograd nor Vienna claims any decisive victory and it is possible that the Poland campaign may terminate as did that along the Aisne in a deadlock in which neither will be able to gain marked advantage.

MAHAFFEY WOMAN HURT
WHILE IN ALTOONA

While visiting at the home of a neighbor on Thanksgiving day, Mrs. Jeanne Lind, aged 48, residing in Mahaffey, tripped upon a curtain pole lying upon the floor and slipped, falling to the floor. She sustained a fractured leg and suffered from shock.

Friday morning the injured woman was taken to the Altoona hospital, where the fracture was reduced. Her left leg was broken above the knee. Friday evening she was reported to be resting comfortably.

Loses His Own Life In Saving Young Woman

(By International News Service)

Pittsburg, Nov. 30.—Pushing a woman from in front of an oncoming train, but unable to save himself, R. M. Baker, a Pennsylvania railroad switching watchman, gave his life to save Miss Jane A. Connell, a telephone operator, early this morning.

The woman received only a sprained ankle.

BANKS WILL RECEIVE
BELGIAN RELIEF FUNDS

The citizens of Clearfield are asking for a place of deposit for money which will undoubtedly be given in small amounts for the relief of the Belgian war sufferers. In response to this demand the banks of Clearfield have decided to accept and forward, free of charge, all such funds.

Giving now means Christmas food for Belgian women and children who otherwise may perish from hunger and cold.

Hundreds of thousands of these destitute people face starvation, and the fatal results of exposure to the harsh winter which already has set in.

"Do it now"—never meant more, Clearfield National Bank, Clearfield Trust Company, County National Bank of Clearfield.

MAIL YOUR CHRISTMAS
GIFTS WITHOUT DELAY

Do your Christmas shopping early, is a yearly slogan that bobs up about this season. Postmaster Martin and his assistants are fully equipped to handle the rush that always attends the Christmas season. While the European war has caused a falling off in the mail bulk, the local office has made the requisition for a large allotment of stamps.

Postmaster Martin has also introduced an innovation on the annual season slogan. With him it is "do your Christmas mailing early." The Clearfield office is prepared to handle a rush of mail matter, but the situation can be wonderfully assisted by local people if they will but heed the request of the office. Mail your packages early. Stickers reading "Do Not Open Until Christmas" are available and if placed on a package, the same may be sent out days in advance of the regular Christmas celebration day.

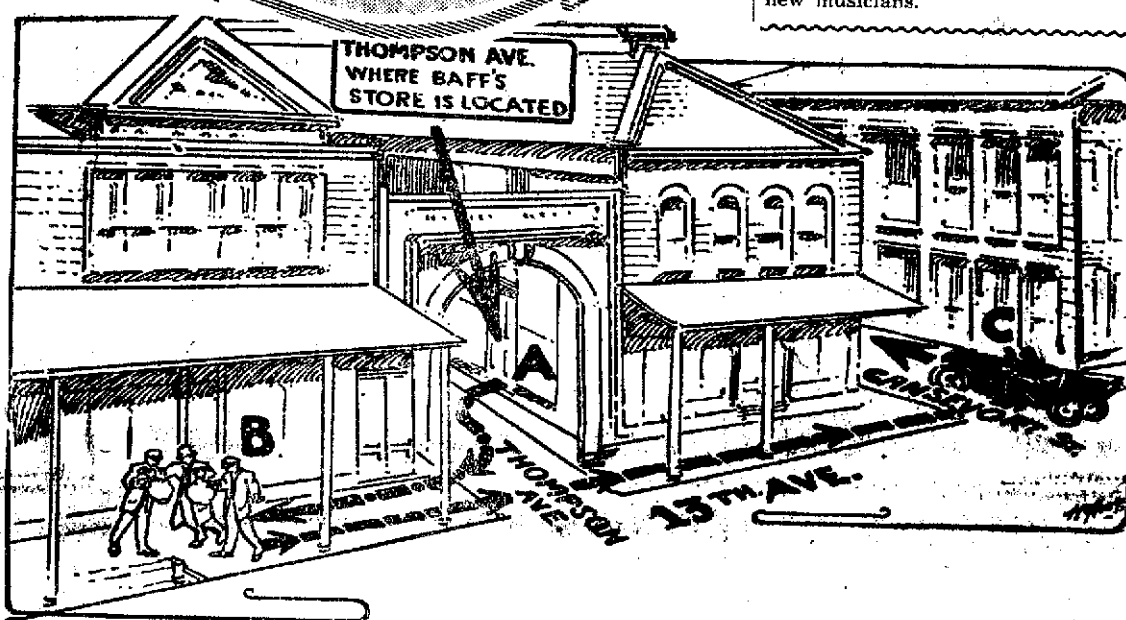

Packages weighing up to 50 pounds may be sent within a radius of 150 miles, and packages weighing less than 20 pounds may be sent anywhere. "Mail early, wrap securely address plainly."

New York, Nov. 30.—Detectives who have been assigned to run down the murderers of Barnett Baff, who is believed to have been slain as a result of his fearless opposition to the so-called "Poultry Trust," are said to have located the man who acted as go-between for the men who wished Baff killed and the "gunmen" who committed the murder.

While the alleged go-between has not yet been arrested the police are believed to be using their own methods to force a confession from this agent of Baff's enemies.

KAISER WILLIAM

Soldiers, at Any Rate

MANY GERMANS CONVERTED

Even Some of the Missionaries are Among Those Who Have Espoused the Cause of the Prophet—Fanatical Turks Claim That the War Lord is One of Them, That's Why They are Fighting For Germany.

London, Nov. 30.—Kaiser William has turned Mohammedan and says his prayers with his face turned toward Mecca every morning and evening—this is implicitly believed by the Turkish soldiers now fighting for the Teutonic cause. They also know—for their leaders have told them so—that the Germans are joining the faith of the Prophet at the rate of 10,000 a day. The Crescent is to fly in every great capital at last!

These stories, absurdities to the Occident, are not hard for the Turks to stomach. They have always believed that Mohammedanism would cover the earth—with a much more implicit faith than ninety per cent. of Christians believe Christ's teachings will some day be everywhere triumphant. They themselves are fierce warriors, proselytes whom the Arabs converted, and who then outdid the countrymen of Mohammed in battling for the Crescent; so it is easy for them to be convinced the warlike Germans are going through the same process as did the Ottomans several centuries ago.

There is just a grain of truth in this Mohammedanization of Germany, too. Of the tens of thousands of German school teachers, engineers, soldiers and business men who have come to Turkey in the last ten years, large numbers have learned the Turkish language and learned it with Teutonic thoroughness.

And a great many have espoused the faith of the Prophet. Even men

Paris, Nov. 30.—It is officially reported that the Germans are now on the defensive in Belgium. Their artillery fire is weaker and the French made progress at some points. The Germans are keeping up their intermittent bombardment of Ypres and have unsuccessfully launched the French troops in the forest of Apremont.

Germans Will Renew Efforts

London, Nov. 30.—The experts, while agreeing that the Germans were foiled in their attempts to reach the French coast through Flanders, expect a resumption of these efforts as soon as the Germans get to the front of all the troops moving through Belgium. This theory is upheld by a dispatch from Constantinople stating: "Private advices from Berlin states that shortly new and important events may be looked for in Belgium."

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1914

Good evening! Remember, it is the good humored man who gets the invitations to dinner.

That European war ought to give the stay-at-home man a chance to complete his invention of perpetual motion.

Either the several press bureaus are lying about the battles in Europe or somebody is being soundly thrashed over there.

President Wilson being a Southerner, it is not strange that he is not in accord with Secretary Bryan's temperance ideas.

Having passed through the turkey hash period the American citizen can now sit down to table without fear and trembling.

A lead of coal and a bushel of potatoes will go farther in "uplifting the poor" than all the words in Webster's dictionary.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is knitting mufflers, which fact demonstrates what great influence a good woman has over some men.

Bear in mind the Belgian relief concert by the Tyrene band, and if your rheumatics prevents you attending, buy a ticket all the same.

Also, those German professors in American colleges might be sent one of President Wilson's neutrality letters translated into German.

By buying their Christmas presents from merchants who advertise in the Progress the shoppers will get the best in the market and save money.

"Man Robbed in the East End," is a newspaper headline. Robbers must have been scared away before they got a chance to rob his west end.

Bundrenary whiskers are coming in again in England, which probably accounts for the backwardness of the average Briton to fight for his country.

However, it may be the wish of the state game commission to destroy all of the wild game in the state and end the bother of paying game wardens salaries.

And, while they are about it, the state legislators might provide for a mental examination of the men and boys who want to be automobile chauffeurs.

The American Can company has received an order for fifteen million cans. Is it possible there were so many candidates for office defeated at the recent election?

That European war may stop next spring, but it may last much longer; it all depends upon the ability of the rebels to induce their subjects to come forward and be shot.

Why not let the Suffragists and Anti-Suffragists fight it out among themselves? Both sides seem to be well equipped for a most interesting discussion of the question.

Nobody but a hunk would throw a shadow over the charitable work of the ladies by inquiring how many of the husbands of the women who are raising for the Belgians have holes in their socks.

Well, the Army defeated the Navy in the football game Saturday, which result was anticipated when it was learned that the players on the Navy team had imbibed two cups of tea apiece the night before.

American and hyphenated American citizens who go abroad do so at their own peril. The United States does not intend to go to any trouble to protect people who have no business to go abroad at this time.

It is said that the British fleet is on the way to punish Colombia for permitting Germans to operate wireless stations in that country, and that the Colombians will not enter protest if the Germans are taught a lesson in neutrality.

MASSACREING CHRISTIANS

The entrance of Turkey into the European war at the instance of Germany has already begun to bear fruit in Moslem massacres of Christians. The holy war so long feared by European nations may be said to have started, and the followers of Mohammed may be expected to slay all those who are not of their own faith. For these massacres Germany must be held responsible, for Turkey would not have declared war but for the insistence of Germany that the Ottoman empire should take part in the conflict.

Whatever else may be said of the troops from India which have joined the allies, it cannot be truthfully asserted that they are assassins of those who differ in religious faith with them. Thus far Germany has no cause for feeling proud of her allies. She has the Huns, who, until they come in contact with civilized people, are semi-savage. She has the Turks, the most intolerant and bloodthirsty fanatics in the old world. She has invited the Mohammedans, whose religion is based on the belief that they may attain paradise by killing Christians.

There are a good many Americans in Turkey and the far east, and if the Mohammedan outburst is prolonged the lives of these Americans will be in great peril. At present two-thirds of the American people believe that the European war could have been averted had Germany so desired, and if Americans in the Orient start to be murdered by the fanatics brought into the conflict by the Kaiser there will not be a native born American who will not be in full sympathy with the allies who are now engaged in preventing the spread of German "culture and humanity."

RED CROSS SEALS

Red Cross Christmas seals are on sale at several places in Clearfield, and the citizens are urged to buy as many of these pretty little envelope ornaments as they can use. The money derived from the sale of these seals is used in the war on the Great White Plague, which annually destroys hundreds of thousands of lives in the United States and to prevent the spread of the dread disease. Everybody can use several of these seals, and when they realize the great amount of good the Red Cross society is doing among the tuberculosis sufferers no one can withstand the appeal for aid in the work.

Red Cross seals are used on packages and letters sent by mail or parcels post. They cannot be used as regular postage, but when attached to parcels or letters they carry good cheer to the recipient and call attention to the fact that the war on tuberculosis is still being carried on. Clearfield citizens know something of the terrible effects of tuberculosis, and they should therefore be more than willing to help in the fight against the scourge by buying Red Cross seals, thus providing funds with which the fight may be carried on until the country is free from the disease.

BIG GUNS ON COAST A MATCH FOR ANY FOE

Expert ordinance officials of the war department declare that no navy in the world could cope with the 14-inch guns of the seacoast fortresses of the United States. These officials said that the German guns which destroyed the forts at Liege, being of a milder type, could not be used by any nation attacking the United States from the sea. The biggest naval gun of a foreign nation according to the officials, is only 13 1/2 inch calibre, and the 11 inch coast defense gun, firing from a solid platform and into a field thoroughly plotted, is more than a match for it.

The United States, however, will not remain at a scandal on the subject of coast defense guns, according to the experts. It will soon have all the forts equipped with the new 14-inch guns. There are about 30 of these, some of them having been sent already to the Philippine Islands, Hawaii and canal fortifications.

It was pointed out also that the efficiency of the 14-inch guns now in the forts can be quickly and materially increased by enlarging the powder chambers of the guns, an operation which is simple and speedily performed.

Secretary Kalbfus Urges Payment of Bounties

The secretary of the state game commission has issued the following letter to the commissioners of the counties of Pennsylvania:

To the County Commissioners:
Gentlemen—I am writing you today regarding a matter in which the game commission and all sportsmen are deeply interested, and refer to the payment of bounties under the provisions of law in this state. This law, among other things, provides that after certain regulations have been complied with, county commissioners shall pay the bounty and afterward, upon claim made, the county shall be reimbursed by the state from a fund especially collected for this purpose.

The courts have ruled that the several counties must pay these claims when properly presented, and that after this has been done, the state is required to appropriate moneys to make return of this money so expended.

This office is quite anxious to have all legitimate claims of this character paid. The sportsmen of the state are equally anxious to have this done, and I am sure those who are claiming bounties feel as we do regarding this matter. We desire to impress upon you the fact that unless the claims presented to you for bounty have been first paid by you, there will be no way through which you can, through appropriation, secure the money to the benefit of claimants for this bounty in your county. The money wherewith to meet your demands has been paid into the state treasury by sportsmen and is awaiting your demand in proper form for return to you, and we ask that you at once comply with the requirements of the law and the ruling of the superior court of this state regarding this matter.

It is hardly fair for county commissioners to refuse to pay bounties during the greater part of two years and then through a hurried payment at the end of that time get in form to present a claim for reimbursement from the state. Many legitimate claims in this way will be overlooked and the purpose for which this law was passed will not be secured; the idea of the sportsmen, who pay this fee, will not have been carried out, and action of this kind by county commissioners will surely be resented at the polls not only by hunters, but also by all lovers of birds; by farmers whose poultry is endangered through the presence of the fox or the weasel, etc., made possible because of such action, as well as by those who have lost this bounty.

Respectfully yours,

JOSEPH KALBFUS,

Secretary, Game Commission

The Working Man Should Know

1. That whiskey possesses no nutritive value whatever and therefore can afford no strength.
2. That all alcoholic drinks, on account of the alcohol-poison—they contain, may exert a brief temporary feeling of warmth and excitability but they soon induce sleepiness and lower the body temperature.
3. That alcoholic drinks on account of the same poison, weaken muscular power, steadiness of the hands, and the whole mental and physical working ability—make one slow and inattentive, and diminish the power of self-preservation.
4. That the regular use of alcohol increases the liability to all kinds of diseases and delays recovery.
5. That the habitual use of alcohol particularly favors liability to consumption.
6. That the regular use of alcoholic drink causes an early loss of working ability.
7. That "Blue Monday" is almost without exception to be attributed to (Siberia) indulgence in alcoholic drink.
8. That nearly half of the accidents occurring in working hours are caused by the use of alcohol.
9. That the regular use of alcohol drains from the work-man's pocket a large amount of money that is well-earned and would much better be spent for food and clothing and other useful things.
10. That the regular use of alcohol greatly endangers health and property.

Teachers Should Know:

1. That alcoholic drink, whether beer, wine, or distilled liquor, contains any one thing or strong element which makes it a poison.
2. That the alcohol contained in a drink is a poison to the body and the mind.
3. That the use of alcohol makes the body and the mind sluggish and the blood impure.
4. That the use of alcohol makes the body and the mind sluggish and the blood impure.
5. That alcohol in every form and amount is particularly injurious to children because of their growing bodies, and is to be absolutely withheld from them.
6. That because alcohol disturbs the normal action of the kidneys and liver, it causes a child's ability to learn, and therefore.
7. Every use of alcohol by the child influences unfavorably the results of instruction; it renders the pupil disobedient and refractory.
8. That alcohol, by weakening the higher brain center involved in reflection and self-control, leaves the way open for the expression of the lower impulses.
9. It is self-evident that in the latter conditions the moral nature of the child is greatly endangered.
10. The teacher must therefore be well convinced that an energetic campaign against alcohol would open the way for a general advance in culture and health, and therefore, a practical cooperation of the whole teaching fraternity in the solution of the alcohol question is from every standpoint urgently desirable.

CNIC STREET SUITS.

Robes Which Fashion Approves For Their Construction.

SUIT WITH DOUBLE TURN.

Broadcloth and serge are always in demand for street dresses, but this year there is even a greater vogue for peau de soie, velours de laine and duvetyn, the latter now being woven to give as much satisfaction as broadcloth itself.

Ripple cloth, which looks exactly as its name implies, but is actually a smooth weave material, is being used for many smart models, while woolen crepe and poplin and even old-fashioned cashmere are seen. This latter material is splendid for the new military cape.

The gown of black satin which is illustrated has a double turned skirt, with bodice of black fabric fur, built on lines which suggest the basque. The vest is of white chiffon.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to cleanse and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

The Y. M. C. A. Minstrels will hold the regular rehearsal in the Association rooms this evening at 7.30 sharp. A full attendance of all the company is desired.

Good Work of Boy Scouts.
The Boy Scouts of America of Boston, Co., were recently of great service to their community. After trying several plans to obtain proper sanitary means of having the garbage and rubbish taken up from the streets and after meeting each time with failure the citizens of the town called on the scouts for aid. The scouts, under Scoutmaster R. D. MacAlpine, put the problem before the Ladies' Twentieth Century club in the form of a petition, which was endorsed by their members, after which they carried the petition to the town authorities. The work of the scouts united the various forces in the town, and the relief was promptly granted.

WEALTHY MAN A SUSPECT IN GIRL'S SLAYING.

For Young Folks

A Country Baby Boy and His Pet Rooster.

Most people love animal pets, especially little people. Dogs and kittens are usually chosen, and rabbits, guinea pigs, squirrels, etc., are common, but a rooster is surely an exception. The baby in the picture is not much larger than his feathered pet, and both are about the same age. As the illustration shows, they are on excellent terms and apparently are enjoying a confidential talk. Kindness to animals is a fine trait and one that all boys and girls should cultivate. Kind treatment quickly wins the trust and affection of a pet.

who have gone as missionaries are among this number.

There may be a few hypocrites, but most of these converts are sincere.

Their addition to the hordes of Mohammed have been made the basis for the most absurd statements in the speeches of fanatic priests.

According to refugees arriving here from Turkish towns young sofos, or clergymen, are gathering about them fanatical multitudes and addressing them somewhat as follows:

"Sons of the noble conquerors of the ancient Eastern empire—descendants of Sultans Selim and Suleiman! I preach to you a message from the only living incarnate Vekil-ullah (God's representative), Sheikh-ulislam (supreme head of the Mohammedan church.)"

"Bold and faithful followers! I bring you glad tidings; for four months our noble religion has augmented its children at the rate of 10,000 daily. Are they our ungrateful Armenians? No. They never will see the blessed light. Are they our sly Greeks, who now become Moslems? Again, I say No! Is it Russian, French, English or Italian? No. No, a thousand times no! Alamanlar, Alamanlar! (Germans, Germans). They are the great and noble nation that has seen the true light! They have drawn the sword—yea, that great nation that knows how to use the sword in the name of Allah!"

"The newly converted great warrior of all Europe, the mighty chezar, Wilhelm the Second, has also become a holy Moslem convert!"

It is not hard to understand that after such speeches as these there is wild enthusiasm for the war among the unthinking and uninformed and wild hatred of the Christians. In many places there have been massacres of Christians—Oriental, not European Christians. In one place I learn from an authoritative source that a Roman Catholic priest, (member of a Roman Catholic order) was captured by a mob and stabbed to death when he steadfastly refused to repeat the Moslem creed.

Of the ten thousand Germans who speak Turkish, many are now in the ranks of the Mohammedan clergy. I learn from an authoritative source that a German named Muller, who

OBITUARY

Meise

Mrs. Meise, wife of Henry Meise, of Clearfield street, died of cancer in the Clearfield hospital Saturday evening at 7:15 o'clock. Mrs. Meise had been ill about a year and was taken to the hospital last week.

She is survived by her husband and eleven children, Herma, William, Lewis, Ord, Lottie and Mrs. John Rader, of Clearfield; Mrs. Annie Vander, of Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Otis Wilson, of Patton; Harry, of Pittsburgh; and Miss Nellie, of Titusville.

The deceased was aged 62 years, 10 months and 17 days. Mrs. Meise was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eton, and the early part of her life was spent in York county. In 1872 she married Henry Meise and went to live at LuRay, in W. Va., from where they came to Clearfield in 1888. She was a member of the Methodist church.

came to Turkey as a Lutheran missionary and was converted to Mohammedanism, led a fanatical Moslem mob to a Roman Catholic church and would have had the prelate lynched but for the timely interference of a Moslem clergyman.

Some time ago the German instructors of the army of Aleppo issued a general order commanding the Christian population of the province to surrender all the firearms. The Christian officers of this military committee (Turks) refused to comply with the order of the Prussian officers or instructors on the ground that they had sworn allegiance to uphold the Ottoman constitution and that this was unconstitutional. Five of these officers, Armenians, Greeks and Syrians, were found guilty of high treason and put to death forthwith.

The next day an Arab Syrian regiment attacked the headquarters of the Aleppo army division staff and captured and executed nine Germans and six Turkish officers. Six days after this, nine regiments of Anatolian troops surrounded the barracks of the Arab regiment and a few hours later every Arab soldier was dead. The Anatolians believed they were destroying a rebellious Christian regiment and when they learned the truth there was a fray among the officers and five German instructors were killed.
